D210 Wireless Payment Terminal

PAX's D210 is a revolutionary payment device designed to interact with customers. Supporting Bluetooth, Wi-Fi, GPRS or cable connection, the D210 connects to a wide range of existing and new smart devices to keep up with an emerging marketplace. Apple Inc. has given the D210 a special certification called MFi meaning that Apple has tested and approved the D210 to meet the highest performance standards for integration with any iPad or iPhone.

Made for
iPod iPhone iPad

Ensuring transactional security with PCI PTS 3.x certification, the D210 streamlines payment into a unique personal program, and you can now take all your value-added applications on the D210 to provide a high-tech and user-friendly customer interaction.
